

Online Privacy Policy and Disclaimer

Please read this Privacy Policy before using the site or submitting any personal information. By using the site, you are accepting the practices described in this Privacy Policy. These practices may be changed, but any changes will be posted and changes will only apply to activities and information on a going forward, not retroactive basis. Relin, Goldstein & Crane, LLP is aware of our users' concerns about their privacy when visiting our site and online resources. This policy explains what information we collect about users, how we collect that information, what we use the information for, who we disclose information to, and how users can limit the uses we make of personally identifiable information. You are encouraged to review the Privacy Policy whenever you visit the site to ensure you understand how any personal information you provide will be used. The privacy practices set forth in this Privacy Policy are for this website only. If you link to other websites, please review the privacy policies posted at those sites.

Disclaimer: None of these materials are offered, nor should be construed, as legal advice. Communication of information by, or through this website, and your receipt or use of such information is not intended to create an attorney-client relationship with Relin, Goldstein & Crane, LLP or any of the firm's attorneys. The creation of the attorney-client relationship would require direct, personal contact between you and our firm, through one or more attorneys, and would also require an explicit agreement by the firm that confirms an attorney-client relationship is established and defines the terms of that relationship. You should not act or rely upon information contained in these materials without specifically seeking professional legal advice.

The description anywhere on this website of the results of any specific case or transaction does not mean or suggest that similar results can or could be obtained in any other matter. Each legal matter should be considered unique and subject to varying results.

This site may offer links to other resources on the internet merely as a convenience to our readers. We do not take any responsibility for the content, accuracy or timeliness of those other sites; nor do we endorse any commercial products that may be advertised or available on those sites.

If you wish to discuss potential legal representation with us, please contact the appropriate partner listed at the end of our service overviews, or the lawyer in the firm with whom you are regularly in contact. Although we are pleased to communicate with you, you should not rely upon transmission of an e-mail through this website to create an attorney-client relationship. Without an attorney-client relationship in the particular matter, we cannot assure that your communications via the website will be privileged or that we will treat it as privileged, unless we reach an explicit agreement otherwise. Therefore, please do not send confidential or sensitive information to us by e-mail through this website.

Collection of Information: We may collect personally identifiable information, which is information that either directly identifies you or could reasonably be used in combination with other publically available information to identify you. Examples of personally identifiable information shall include, but is not limited to, your name, contact information, email address, and other information in combination with such identifiers. We may record information about your usage, such as when you use Relin, Goldstein & Crane, LLP, the contacts you communicate with and the frequency and size of data transfers, as well as information you display or click on within the Relin, Goldstein & Crane, LLP website.

Cookie/Tracking Technology: This website may use cookie and tracking technology depending on the features offered. Cookie and tracking technology are useful for gathering information such as browser type and operating system, tracking the number of visitors to the site, and understanding how visitors use the site. Cookies can also help customize the site for visitors. Personal information cannot be collected via cookies or other tracking technology; however, if you previously provided personally identifiable information, cookies may be tied to such information. Aggregate cookie and tracking information may be shared with third parties.

Social Plugins: This site may use social plugins (e.g., the Facebook “Like” button) to enable you to easily share information with others. When you visit our site, the operator of the social plugin may place a cookie on your computer, enabling that operator to recognize individuals who have previously visited our site. If you are logged into the associated social media website (e.g., Facebook) while browsing on our website, the social plugin allows that social media website to receive information that you have visited our website. The social plugin may also allow the social media website to share information about your activities on our website with other users of their social media website. For more information about the information shared via a particular social media plugin, you should refer to that social media site’s privacy statement.

Distribution of Information: Relin, Goldstein & Crane, LLP does not sell, share or otherwise disclose the information we collect through our online sources, except as provided in this policy. We may disclose information to third parties who provide us with various business services, including monitoring and maintaining the website, and preparing newsletters or mailings. In addition, we may also share information with governmental agencies or other companies assisting us in fraud prevention or investigation. We may do so when: (1) permitted or required by law; or, (2) trying to protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud or unauthorized transactions; or, (3) investigating fraud which has already taken place. The information is not provided to these companies for marketing purposes.

Commitment to Data Security: Relin, Goldstein & Crane, LLP maintains appropriate technical and organizational security measures to protect the security of your personal information against loss, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure or alteration. However, no internet transmission is ever completely secure or error free; therefore, you should take special care before deciding to send us information via email.

Privacy Contact Information: If you have any questions, concerns, or comments about our Privacy Policy you may contact us by mail at: 28 East Main Street, Suite 1800, Rochester, NY, 14614– Attn: V.S. Vilku, Esq.
